Chili Cook-Off

Saturday, February 6th, 2010

6:00 to 8:00 pm

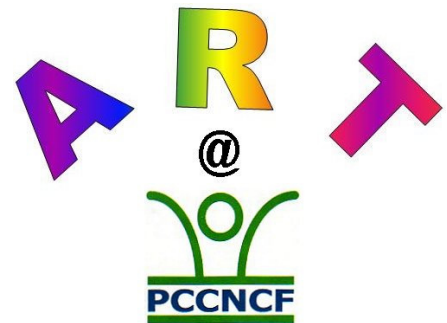

Come to the Pride Community Center to taste the best chili that Gainesville has to offer.

Admission includes a bowl of the "house" chili, chili samples, corn bread, a dessert bar, and all the water you can drink.

Sliding Scale: $5 - $10

We are looking for chefs to compete in this challenge. To enter, send an e-mail to pridectr@bellsouth.net. Prizes will be awarded to the top three entries, based on votes of those who attend. Cash Bar and Admission proceeds support the programs of the center.

1st Prize: 2 Tickets to the Hippodrome Mainstage
2nd Prize: $20.00 certificate for the Rainbow Gift Shop
3rd Prize: 2 Tickets for the Hippodrome Cinema

YOU'VE BEEN FLOCKED, MARGARET PARRISH!

Do you have a friend who needs a good flocking?

You can have the great pleasure of flocking a friend with 20 beautiful pink flamingoes. For a $20.00 donation we will place a frolicking flock of flamingoes in the front yard of one of your "dear" friend's houses. When your flocked friend wants to remove them from their yard, they call the flocking removal task force and, for a $10.00 donation, we will remove them. "Insurance" against another flocking can also be purchased for a $10.00 donation. "Insurance" to block an original flocking is a $15.00 donation.

Flamingo Flocking is a fundraiser for Pride Community Center of North Florida.

"Immigration Law for LGBT" with Evan George

Thursday, February 18th at 7:00 pm

Join us as Evan George, a local immigration attorney, UF alum, and Gainesville native, presents information about Immigration Law for the LGBT. This event is co-sponsored by PCCNCF, HRC, & the Stonewall Democrats. There will be light refreshments available.

George has represented over 75 LGBT individuals who feared returning to their home countries due to persecution based on their sexual orientation. LGBT asylum is a form of immigration protection, which is often unknown to the many people who qualify and desperately need it.
