

PCCNCF to Host a Special Showing of "Pride"

April 13th

7:00 pm

If you missed the movie "Pride" when it showed at the Hippodrome during Pride Days or later in November last year, you can catch an encore showing at the Pride Center (3131 NW 13th St) on April 13th at 7 p.m. This is a free showing to raise awareness of the importance of building bridges between different communities working for social justice.

Based on a true story, the film depicts a group of lesbian and gay activists who raised money to help families affected by the British miners' strike in 1984, at the outset of what would become the Lesbians and Gays Support the Miners campaign. The National Union of Mineworkers was reluctant to accept the group's support due to the union's public relations' worries about being openly associated with a gay group, so the activists instead decided to take their donations directly to Onllwyn, a small mining village in Wales, resulting in an alliance between the two communities.

"It says something that 30 years after the events it depicts, 'Pride' should feel so unexpectedly rousing. People cooperating across ideological lines? Finding common cause with folks they don't 100 percent agree with? What a concept." ~ NPR

"'Pride' will get viewers cheering while reflecting upon how far we have come in 30 years... and how far we have yet to go." ~ ReelViews

Presented by PCCNCF in partnership with the Alachua County Labor Coalition.

We're Asking Again

We know it seems like we're always asking you to donate for something the center needs. And we pretty much are! PCCNCF is run entirely by volunteers. We're constantly striving to get a quality product for the best possible price whether it's the newsletter or an event venue. Memberships, fundraisers and donations help us keep the center open but are not always enough when extra expenses occur.

We need your help again. This year in addition to the $6,000 plus needed for the property taxes we're asking you to help raise funds for the Pride Festival stage. Since the Bo Diddley Plaza is under renovation the festival will be at another site and we'll need to rent or borrow a stage. Most likely we'll be renting and expect the cost to be $1,500 to $3,000. Your contribution, large or small, is needed now so we can go forward with plans.

Please return the donation slip and designate how you'd like your tax free contribution to be used. If you have any questions or suggestions email us at pccncf@pccncf.org or call 352-377-8915.
